AVON HIGH SCHOOL
REFLECTIONS 1984

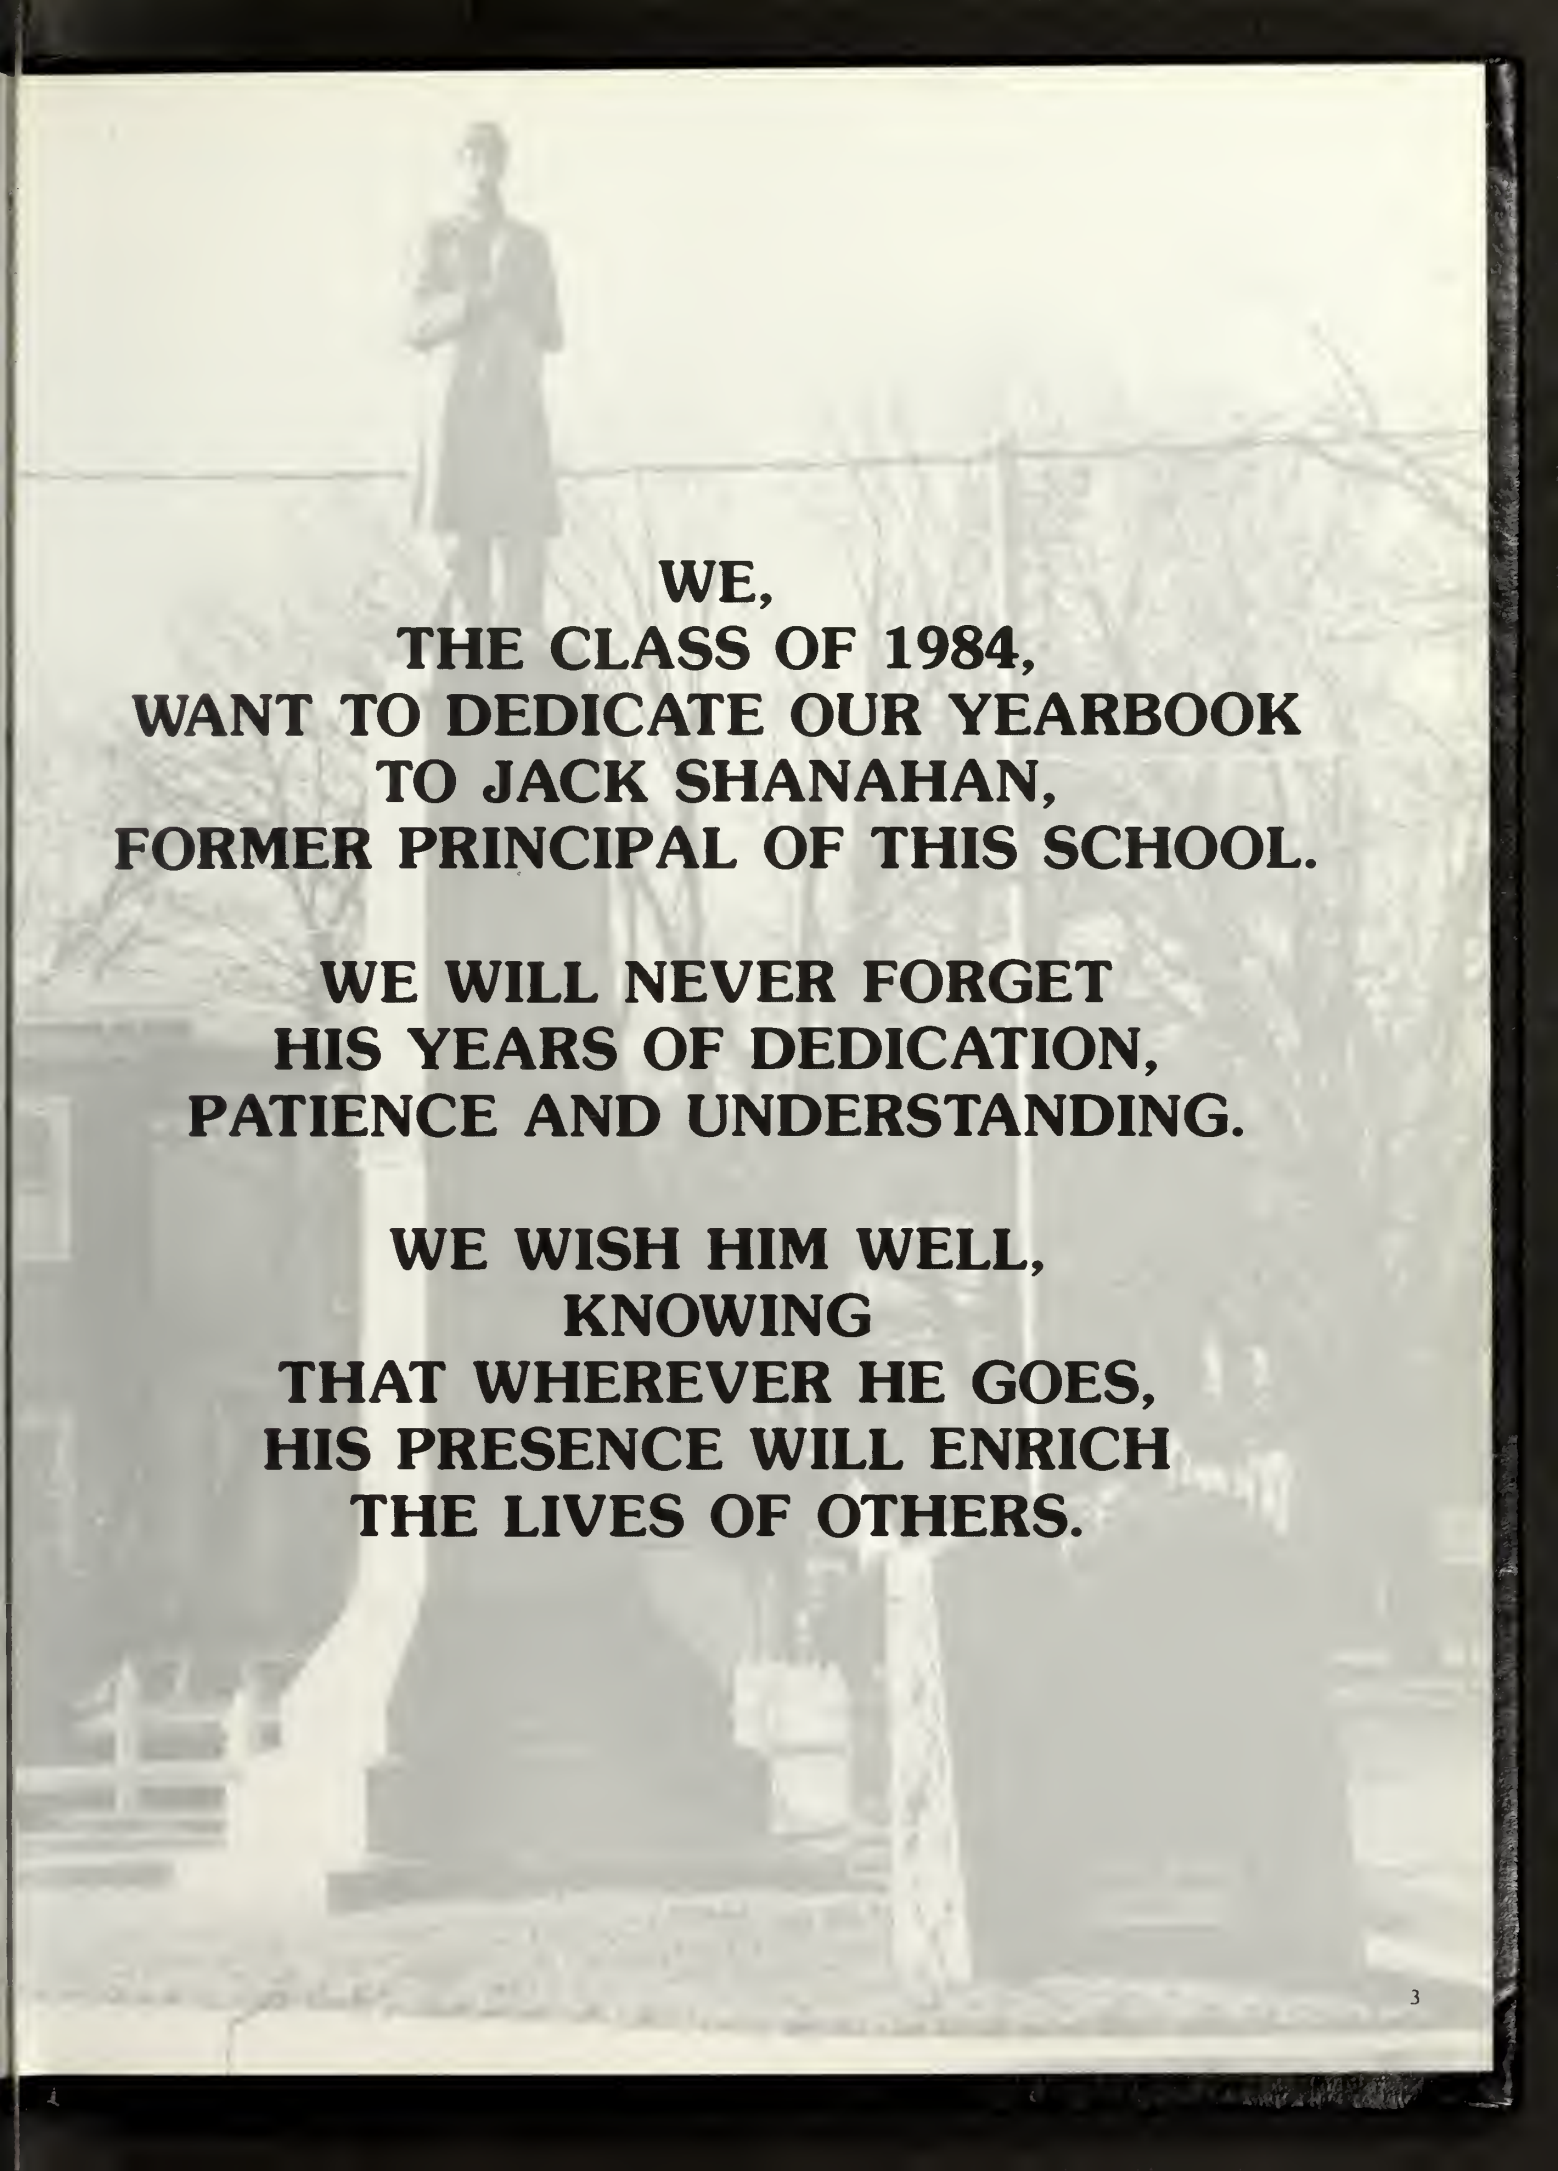

DEDICATION

MR. JOHN SHANAHAN

WE,
THE CLASS OF 1984,
WANT TO DEDICATE OUR YEARBOOK
TO JACK SHANAHAN,
FORMER PRINCIPAL OF THIS SCHOOL.

WE WILL NEVER FORGET
HIS YEARS OF DEDICATION,
PATIENCE AND UNDERSTANDING.

WE WISH HIM WELL,
KNOWING
THAT WHEREVER HE GOES,
HIS PRESENCE WILL ENRICH
THE LIVES OF OTHERS.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT & PRINCIPAL: Mr. Loverin

SCHOOL COMMITTEE: Mr. Nolan, Mr. Holmes, Mr. Hegarty, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Olson.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1984:

As you graduate and look forward to the future, I offer my personal congratulations and wish you success, health and happiness.

I hope we have been of some help as you progressed through the various grades and classes towards graduation.

I feel it is appropriate at this time to share an excerpt from the 1961 Inaugural Address of John F. Kennedy. I sincerely hope you will find it applicable as you leave Avon High School and reflect on your past and your future.

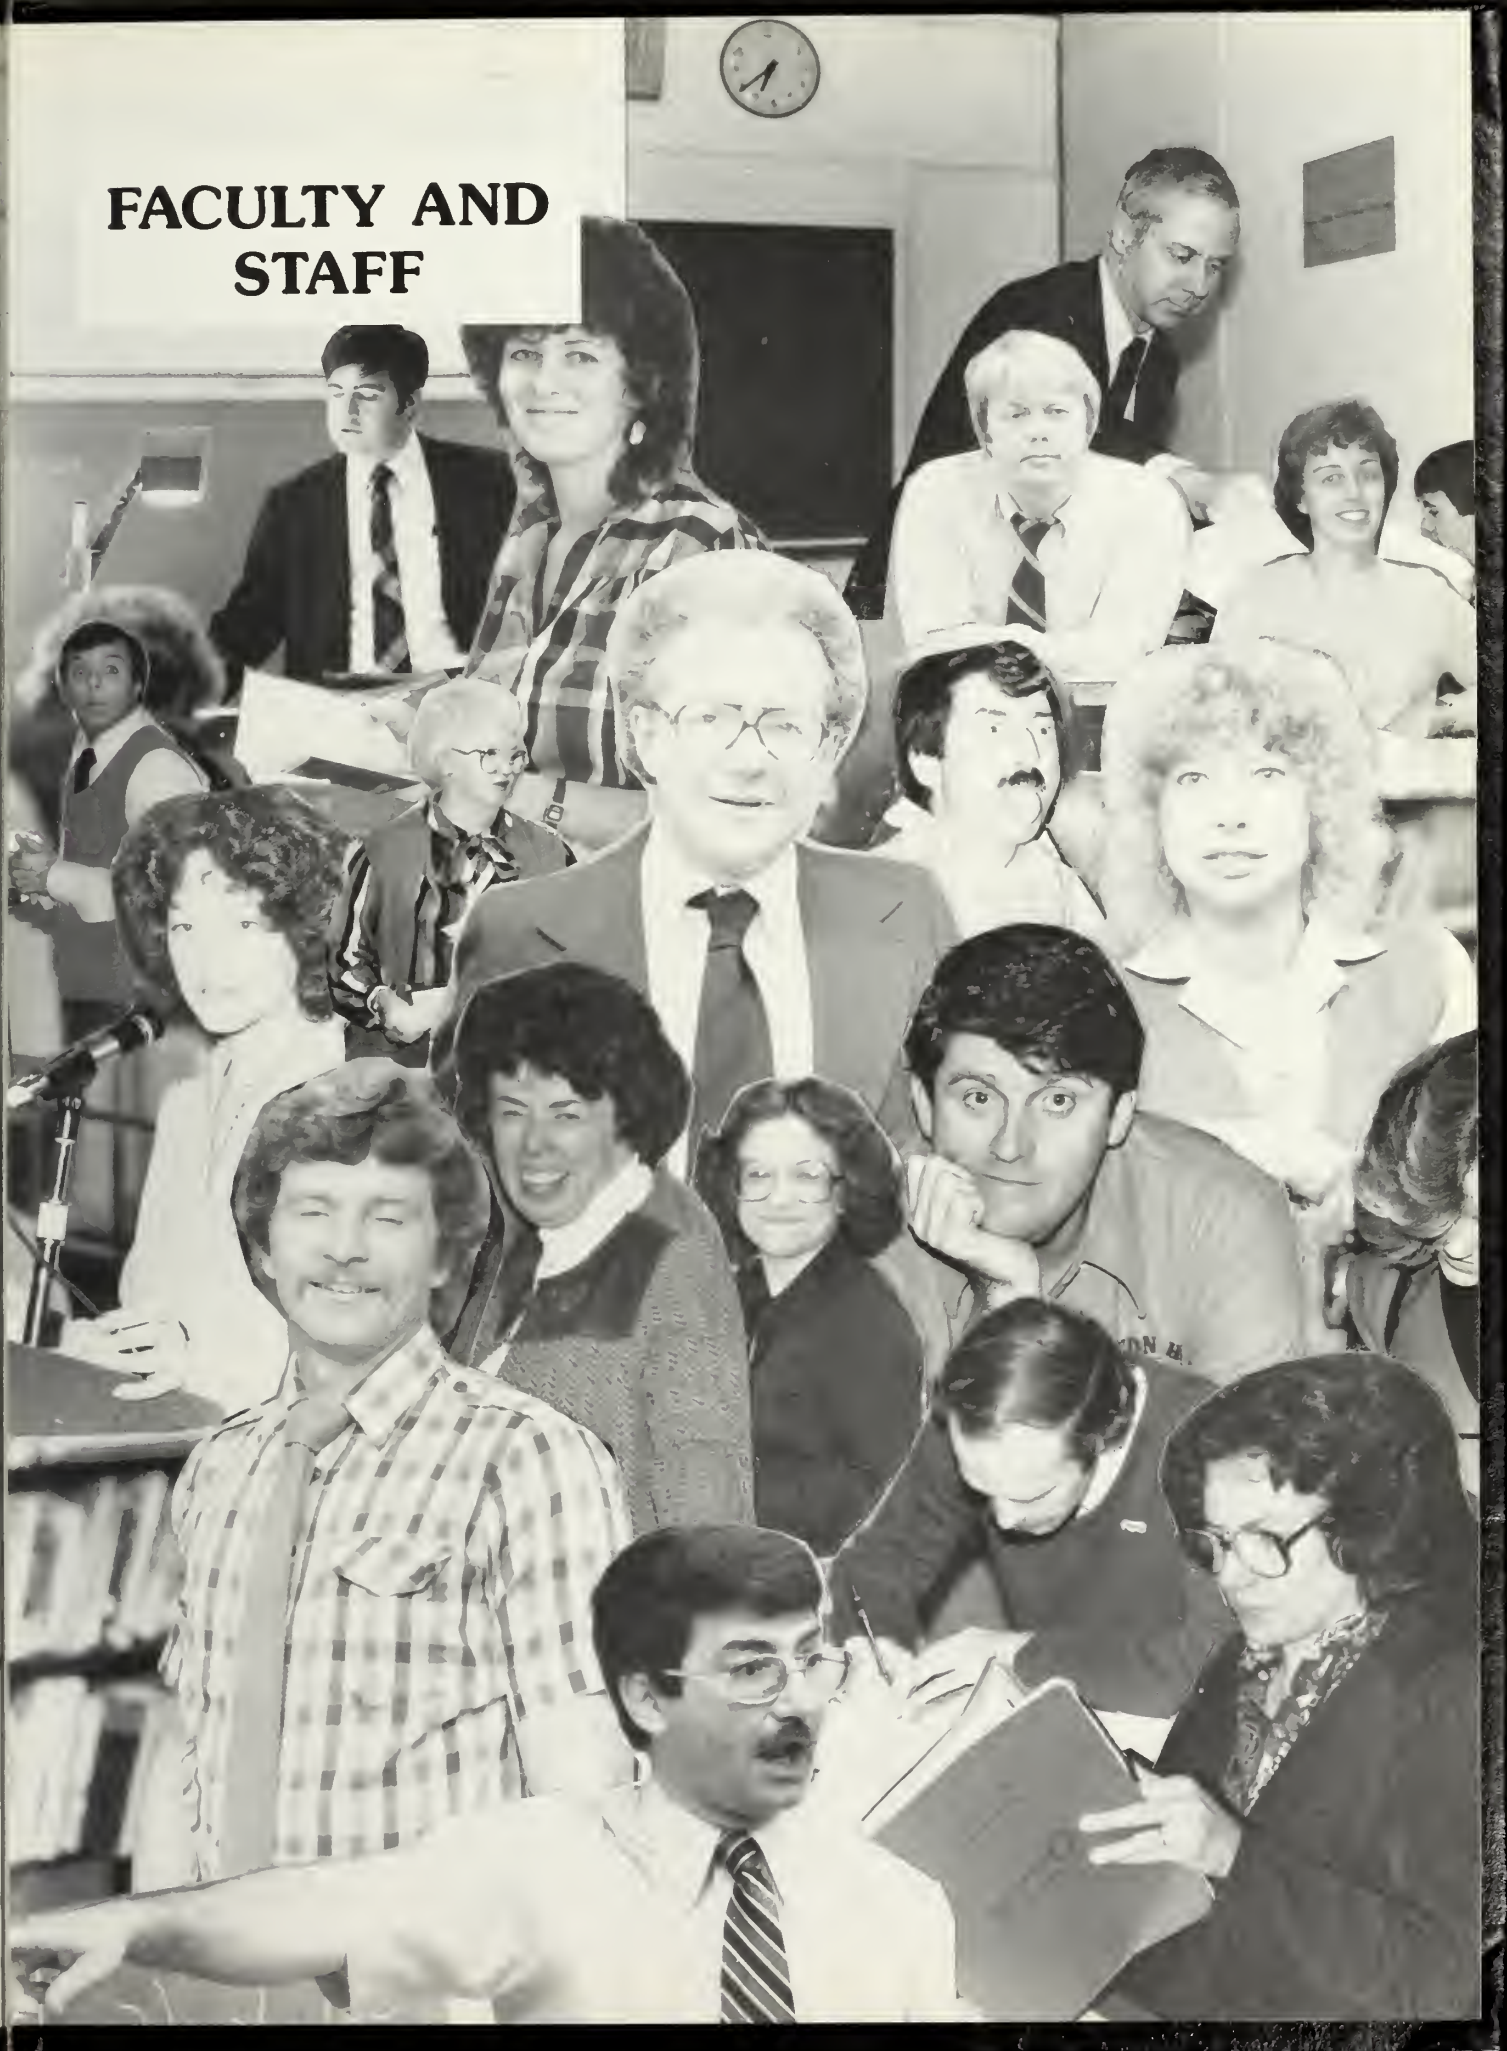

"Let the word go forth from this time and place, to friends and foe alike, that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a hard and bitter peace, proud of their ancient heritage, and unwillilng to witness or permit the slow undoing of those human rights to which the nation has always been committed, and to which we are committed today, at home and around the world."

Once again, congratulations and good luck in your future.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL: Mr. Chapman

THE MORSS REVIEW

MORSS ON THE SENIOR CLASS

One winter Friday afternoon early in 1984, Scrooge slogged home from school feeling tired and decided to take a sinker. "Oh," he thought, "how lovely not to have to go to school tomorrow." And as he drifted off to sleep he tried to imagine what life must be like for the driver of the Parker eighteen wheeler he had passed on Page Street that morning.

His eyes closed and suddenly he found himself in the cab, talking with the driver. "Where is all this stuff headed?" he asked, as the truck roared up 128 through Newton.

"Some is going to Hayward, California, and some is headed for Sao Paulo, Brazil," the driver yelled back. "We're carrying all sorts of stuff: Stromberg-Carlson stereos, Anderson windows, Lisa computers, Williams Aftershave, Webber barbecue grilles, Campbell soups, Mahon-naise- you name it, we got it in the back."

By this time we were on the McGrath and O'Brien Highway, rumbling along, when suddenly Nancy Veracka and Sheila Zablocki shot in front of us in a little White Lotus headed for Sullivan Square. Their radio was on full volume and playing "When the red red robin goes bob bob bobbin' along." "Look at those two!" growled the driver. "Always the way. It really Maddens me. Never a Kopp around when you want one." In disgust he pulled off to go into a Duncan Donuts for coffee.

As we sat down, he dropped some coins into the jukebox. It was a vintage Wurlitzer, complete with rainbow lights and Gothic styling. It began playing "Once in love with Amy." "What other Melody will this play?" I asked.

"This is famous all over town," he replied. One of the oldies is 'Come Josephine in my Flying Machine.' You should also hear Duke Ellington's rendition of 'Laura-' really stupendous."

He winked at the waitress, a pretty Colleen, who was flirting and being Coy. We left, got back into the truck, and as he flipped the Daschke, the big Diesel roared to life. He decided to Turner around and head out another way. "Here," he said, "It's better in DeSena lane. The traffic moves faster." The light had changed and we made it just in DiNic of time, rumbling down the busy thoroughfare with St. Andrew's

NEVER A KOPP AROUND WHEN YOU WANT ONE. IN DISGUST HE PULLED OFF TO GO INTO A DUNCAN DONUT FOR COFFEE.

Church on one side and on the other a billboard advertising a movie starring Ann-Margaret.

On the way back to Avon after leaving off the cargo, we got thirsty and decided to pull into a dive called The Garden of Eden. He ordered a highball but Scrooge just wanted a glass of dry Sherry. Again he bunged some quarters into the jukebox, which played "Michelle" and some other number, a disco beat with jungle Tom-Toms, followed by something by Pink Floyd. Then the live entertainment came on.

At a nearby table Cheryl Klimas and a boyfriend were holding Hands. Out in the Hall some Saylors, who were feeling no pain at all, were skyLarkin around. The Powers that be were getting rather annoyed at this frolicking and a Dick Tracy type in the form of Greg Tutkus, replete with fedora, went over to Chuck them out, so that the singer, Ellen DuBois, could be heard. But the Saylors were as stubborn as a Mule, and when he went over, they picked him up and began Tibnam over on his head. A scuffle followed. The cocktail waitress, Janet Czybora, screamed and dropped five mugs of beer. Finally two cops, Greg Carlson and Jim Gaquin, big burly fellows with nightsticks at the ready, burst through the door. They were Whiffen the air and what they smelled was not spring grass.

Such a fracas finally broke out that the place looked like the laundry scene from "Mr. Roberts. " Finally, though, the valiant cops won and had to Kerri out the miscreants. Since this was not turning out to be the peaceful, relaxing drink my pal and I had hoped for, he said, "C'mon, let's get out of here. I've got stops to make at Meninno's, Peterson Awning, and Nessralla's, and then it's home to Ballum Road. What happened on the trip back is not known because the telephone rang and Scrooge woke up.

The Road Not Taken

by Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth.

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same.

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged into a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Arlene,
From braces on your teeth,
To a full body cast,
To braces on your back,
All keeping you straight
As an arrow.
And like an arrow true
In flight,
You landed in the bullseye,
A true winner.
Love,
Mom & Dad

Josephine,
You're the last of our six, and you've made us very proud of you. We both want to wish you the best of luck now and always.
Love Mom & Dad

Jo,
To my baby sister, who I have shared a lot of good times with. I sincerely want to wish you a lot of luck in whatever you may choose to do in the future.
Love Pam

Congratulations Jo, I want to wish you lots of luck and happiness in the future.
Love Angela

To my favorite niece,
Congratulations! I wish you continued success in college.
Love, Aunt Claire

Arlene,
Congratulations for a job well done!
Love Papa

Arlene,
Congratulations! We're sure you'll go far in this world. We wish you all the luck and success that life can bring.
Love, Uncle Tom and Aunt Kathy

Arlene,
I am very glad to have a sister who is as helpful and understanding as you are. Congratulations!
Love, Charlene

Arlene,
I want to wish you a lot of happiness and success in the future. You're a great person, and I'm glad you're my friend.
Love, Jo

Jo,
I wish you all of the success and happiness in the world. You are a true friend!
Love, Arlene

Friendship is like a balloon. It starts out small, but
the more that is added to it, the stronger and fuller it grows.
